ORDER

The Petitioners' Requests for Special Permission to Appeal Administrative Law Judge Kenneth Chu's ruling denying their petitions to revoke the Acting General Counsel's Subpoenas Duces Tecum are denied in part and granted in part. The Petitioners are directed to provide all responsive documents and communications available without resort to analysis of the email backup tapes, subject to the Acting General Counsel thereafter having the opportunity to establish that an additional search of the email backup tapes is necessary, and the Petitioners having the opportunity to demonstrate that it would be unduly burdensome.¹

Dated, Washington, D.C., October 31, 2012.

MARK GASTON PEARCE,	CHAIRMAN
BRIAN E. HAYES,	MEMBER
RICHARD F. GRIFFIN, JR.,	MEMBER

¹ Member Hayes would grant the special appeal of non-respondent CareOne Management, LLC, subject to the Acting General Counsel having the opportunity, after reviewing the information provided pursuant to the other subpoenas, to persuade the judge that some or all of the subpoenaed material from CareOne Management, LLC is necessary to prosecute the allegations of the complaint.
